

- Stage 1 (Centre): If you believe that there has been an administrative or procedural error in arriving at your grade, then you have the option to query this, by following the process set out below.
- Stage 2: (Awarding Body) If you still believe there is an administrative or procedural error or the grade reflects an unreasonable exercise of academic judgement, then you may appeal to the awarding body.

results

Summer 2021 – GCSE and A level